

Dave Murphy

Insurance Executive, Speaker, Coach, Writer

Dave serves on the Board of Global Leadership Partners, a non-profit which provides world-class leadership training internationally. GLP's mission is to equip aspiring leaders via training which promotes a values-based, purpose-driven approach to leadership. Dave joined Global Leadership Partners in 2018 as a Speaker.

Dave formerly served as a Business Consultant in the Financial Services Industry. During his 37-year career, he held positions in Sales, Marketing, Product Development, Recruiting, Management and Strategic Planning.

In his present role at Sammons Financial Group, Dave serves as Vice President, National Accounts. In this role Dave travels broadly to speak to business owners on the subjects of leadership and the factors critical to achieving success. Dave has authored multiple articles for financial services publications.

Dave earned his bachelor's degree in Economics from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, USA.

Dave and his wife Di have been married since 1981 and have three grown, married children and four grandchildren. His interests include kayaking, hiking, reading, and serving others.

