

Lauren Tiffan

Small Business & Entrepreneurial Trainer,
Director of Strategic Programming

Lauren runs multiple commercialization training programs for small businesses and startups at The Entrepreneurs Center, specifically with the Small Business Innovation Research program within the USA Department of Defense. In each of her positions throughout her career, she has either been a part of, founded, coached, or consulted for startups.

Lauren serves on the Board of The Aruna Project, a non-profit which helps survivors of human trafficking and provides them manufacturing jobs to enable them to be self-sufficient.

She earned her bachelor's degree in International Studies with a focus on Development with Spanish and Entrepreneurship Minors from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

Married since 2016, Lauren and her husband, Greg, live in Cincinnati, Ohio, and have a daughter. Her interests include her dog (Finley), hiking, reading, traveling, and serving others.

