

Dr. R. Mark Beadle

Leadership Lecturer,
Business Executive, Educational Leader

Prior to his conceptualizing Sevenstar (an online Christian school), Mark was the elementary principal of Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy. He is recognized nationally as a school leader and an expert in the use of educational technology. He has taught all levels of students (elementary, middle school, high school, and college) and in public, international, missionary, and Christian schools.

Mark holds degrees from Taylor University and Purdue University. His doctorate is from the University of Cincinnati.

In 1978, he married Lou Ann, and they raised 3 children that are married. They are enjoying being grandparents!

Mark enjoys scuba diving (he says make sure you get to the Great Barrier Reef or the Red Sea), traveling (has been to 35 countries), biking, swimming, and reading.
