

Scott Liston

Executive Management Consultant

Scott is a Principal at MLA Companies in Dayton, Ohio. He guides clients in developing dynamic financial models for the launch of new products, new divisions, and acquired companies. In collaboration with key business stakeholders, he helps to determine how key assumptions of growth options translate into financial outcomes for the enterprise.

During a 22-year career at Procter & Gamble, Scott held several executive-level financial leadership roles specifically guiding sales and market development and new business and product development.

More recently, Scott led a small startup as CFO and has consulted with small- and mid-size businesses. This experience allows Scott to support a variety of businesses in their growth strategic planning.

Scott has an MBA with a concentration in Finance from Indiana University and a BS in Business Administration from Grace College.

He is married to Deb, who grew up in Tanzania, East Africa, has four grown children, and is a 4X Ironman triathlon finisher.
