

Scott Liston

---

Executive Management Consultant

Scott is a Principal of the Strategic Advisory Consulting Practice of MLA Companies in Dayton, Ohio, serving business owners and business unit leaders by connecting strategy to execution. He brings extensive experience in strategy development and the design and launch of new products, new divisions, and acquired companies including aligning key measures and executive compensation to market plans. He also presently serves as Vice President of Global Leadership Partners.

Scott has served as the Chief Financial Officer of a high growth start-up company in Michigan, USA and provided executive-level financial leadership to Division Presidents and Vice Presidents over a successful 22-year career at Procter & Gamble.

For three years, he served on a three-person executive panel that evaluated more than 300 proposals and then recommended funding for entrepreneurs' commercializing technology from Ohio's research universities.

Scott received a master's in Business Administration, Finance concentration, from Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, and a bachelor's in Business Administration from Grace College, Winona Lake, Indiana. He is married to Deb, who grew up in Tanzania, East Africa, has four grown children, and is a 3X Ironman triathlon finisher.

