

Bosco Izabayo

Director, Life Coach

Bosco is a National Director for a global non-profit. Since 2010, he has worked closely with students in Rwanda and other East African countries to help them live a life of purpose that positively impacts their communities. From 2017 to 2020, he served as the managing director of an engineering company that distributed fiber internet in the capital city of Rwanda.

Bosco has a bachelor's degree in Computer Science and Systems from the University of Rwanda and a master's degree in Transformational Leadership from the Global Academy for Transformational Leadership in Nairobi, Kenya.

He has been married to Alice since 2017. Both desire to empower youth and women, two groups they believe will positively change Africa and the world.

He enjoys walking in nature, reading, and exploring new places and cultures.
