

Bridget Soko

Manager, Lawyer

Bridget is the People & Culture Manager for JTI Malawi, where she leads strategic people initiatives that support business growth and operational excellence.

She began her career as an employment and contract lawyer before transitioning into human resources. After that, she held leadership roles partnering with company vice presidents to support business transformation, policy development, and leadership capability building across Switzerland, Poland, the Philippines, Romania, and Malawi.

Bridget holds an MBA and an LLB in Law, and has completed professional development programs including CIPD, IMS, and Agile Training-of-Trainers.

She is a mother of two and enjoys cross country driving, traveling, baking, and swimming.