

Kevin Forrest

Vice President of Sales

Kevin serves as a Vice President of Sales for Shaw Industries Group, Inc., a subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway. In his 30+ year career, he has held leadership positions in Sales, Distribution, Importing, and Wholesaling for various companies in the flooring business. He has extensive experience in developing high-producing sales teams of integrity, resulting in exponential growth.

He earned his bachelor's in Marketing from The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio.

Kevin and his wife, Gwen, have been married since 1987 and have three grown, married children and three grandchildren. His interests include playing bass guitar for the corporate band he founded, running in the St. Jude race to support the children's research hospital, and spending time with his children and grandchildren.

