

Krzysztof Góra

Sales & Marketing Manager, Lecturer, Consultant

Krzysztof is a Sales & Marketing Director in the pharmaceutical industry. A graduate of the Medical University of Warsaw, he is a pharmacist specializing in pharmacoeconomics. He is also the first Polish person to earn a Certificate of Competency in Clinical Cannabinoid Pharmacy.

He serves as a judge in a District Pharmaceutical Court and is a healthcare expert at the think tank Center for Development Strategies. Previously, he worked for the Association of Pharmacies Employers, a Public Relations & Public Affairs agency, and as a consultant for the pharmaceutical industry.

Krzysztof co-founded and lectures for Health Influence, Poland's first course for influencers in the health industry. Additionally, he is the vice president of the Subwarsaw District in the New Hope political party.

He and his wife, Joanna, have been married since 2012 and have three children. They live near Warsaw, Poland.