Arther Paul

Pharmacist & Head International Business

Arther is a registered pharmacist and a seasoned industry leader with nearly 20 years of experience with pharmaceutical companies such as Sun Pharma and GSK. Throughout his career, he has served at various capacities in sales, marketing, international business development, and regulatory compliance. He has successfully led product training initiatives and motivated diverse, cross-cultural teams across Europe, Africa, and Southeast Asia to achieve exceptional milestones.

He is also an entrepreneur, who founded and operates his own start-up enterprise specializing in techno-commercial product development, regulatory navigation, and end-to-end sourcing and supply of pharmaceuticals and veterinary products.

He lives in Chennai, India, with his wife, Uma, and two daughters. He is a passionate reader and an enthusiastic cyclist.

GLOBAL LEADERSHIP PARTNERS