

Sajjan George

Life Transformation Coach, Founder, & CEO

Sajjan is a cross-functional professional with 25 years of progressive work experience in various industry verticals, including 9 years in the United States. His functional areas of expertise include Training, Human Resources, and Operations. He is an enthusiastic supporter of innovations and continuous improvement, is passionate about excellence in all work areas, and is an ecstatic continuous learner.

His qualifications include a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, a Master's in Software Engineering, a Master's in Business Administration (MBA), and a Certificate in Strategic Leadership Management from the University of Illinois (Urbana Champaign).

He is a member of ICF, a Certified Coach & Life Skills Trainer, a DiSC Assessment Facilitator, and a Certified Family Counselor. He has recently transitioned into a full-time profession in Coaching, Training, and Mentorship. He is also a published author.

He has been married since 2003 and has two teenage girls. His interests include writing, cooking, traveling, and outdoor photography.

