

Steve O'Hearn

Board Chair, Retired Partner

Steve was the Global Insurance Leader of PwC until he retired from the firm in 2020. Throughout his career, he lived and worked in Milwaukee, Tokyo, New York, Zurich, and Munich.

He currently chairs the Board of Reinsurance Group of America, the leading global life and health reinsurance company. Its purpose is to make financial protection accessible to all.

He serves on the global Board of Junior Achievement Worldwide and leads an Advisory Panel for the Lab for Economic Opportunity, committed to eradicating poverty in the USA. In his home state of Wisconsin, Steve serves on the Boards of the Door County Community Foundation and the Peninsula School of Arts

Steve and his wife, Lisa, reside in New York City and Sister Bay, Wisconsin, and have three grown children. A graduate of the University of Notre Dame, he is also a Certified Public Accountant.