

Steve O'Hearn

Board Chair, Retired PwC Partner

Steve was the Global Insurance Leader of PwC until he retired from the firm in 2020. Throughout his career, he lived and worked in Milwaukee, Tokyo, New York, Zurich, and Munich.

In 2020, he joined the Board of Reinsurance Group of America, one of the leading global life and health reinsurance companies. In 2022, he was elected Chair.

He serves on the Boards of Impactvise, a Swiss-based consulting firm, and Junior Achievement Worldwide. In his home state of Wisconsin, Steve is also on the Boards of the Door County Community Foundation and the Peninsula School of Arts

Steve and his wife, Lisa, reside in New York City and Sister Bay, Wisconsin, and have three grown children. Steve is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and a US CPA.