

Terina Dutton

Co-Founder/ VP Dutton Family Foundation

Terina is a founder and director of the Dutton Family Foundation. As vice-president, she works primarily in International Community Development, Human Trafficking Prevention, and job creation. The foundation has helped to build children's homes, facilitate adoptions, empower families in severe poverty, and open guesthouses, cafés, and boutiques in the United States and abroad.

Earlier in life, Terina was an Olympic-level gymnast and a 2-sport collegiate athlete. As a 7-time NCAA All-American Swimmer, she broke more than 15 school or Conference records. She also competed in the USA Olympic trials and was inducted into the Hall of Fame at the University of Nevada. Her extensive background in sports provided the discipline, commitment, perseverance, and other life skills necessary for success in both business and life.

She and her husband, John, have 6 children (3 adopted). Their family has traveled and lived in 4 countries, 7 US States, and 18 cities.
